

UNITED STATES PATENT AND TRADEMARK OFFICE
BOARD OF PATENT APPEALS AND INTERFERENCES

Patent Interference No. 105,494

HUMAN GENOME SCIENCES, INC.
and CoGenesys, Inc.
(08/741,095 and 09/340,690),
Junior Party,

v.

NORTHWESTERN UNIVERSITY
(6,291,207 and 6,303,336),
Senior Party.

Before: SCHAFER, LEE, and TORCZON, Administrative Patent Judges.

TORCZON, Administrative Patent Judge.

JUDGMENT

Bd.R. 127(b) – Requested

1 Human Genome Sciences, Inc. (HGS) is now the assignee of record
2 for all of the involved applications and patents. HGS has elected to request
3 judgment against the senior party patents.

4 In view of this request, it is—

5 ORDERED that judgment be entered against the Northwestern
6 University inventors for the invention of count 1 (Paper 1);

Interference No.105,494

1 FURTHER ORDERED that judgment be entered against the
2 Northwestern University inventors for the invention of count 2 (Paper 1);
3 FURTHER ORDERED that claims 1-17 and 19-23 of the 6,291,207
4 patent be CANCELED, 35 U.S.C. 135(a);
5 FURTHER ORDERED that claims 1-26 of the 6,303,336 patent be
6 CANCELED, 35 U.S.C. 135(a); and
7 FURTHER ORDERED that a copy of this judgment be entered in the 8 administrative records of the involved patents and applications.

cc:

John Kilyk, Jr. and Bruce M. Gagala, LEYDIG VOIT & MAYER, LTD., of Chicago, Illinois.

William K. Merkel and Joseph A. Williams, Jr., MARSHALL, GERSTEIN
& BORUN LLP, of Chicago, Illinois.